Rank Charities' Youth Work Publications

The Rank Charities' youth work programmes involve over 70 youth projects throughout the United Kingdom. All have an emphasis on local identification of need, youth participation and community development. Professional development is also woven into the initiatives. Various aspects of the work are captured in a series of publications.

Inside Youth Work. Insights into informal education. Based on the work of projects supported by the Rank Foundation and Joseph Rank Trust this publication shows that keeping faith in youth work pays dividends. It looks at the central elements of youth work and the contribution they make to individual lives and to local communities. Compiled and edited by Alan Rogers. Price £1.50. 2003 32 pages A4.

Youth Work and the Spark of the Divine. In this inspiring booklet Larry Parsons reflects on his philosophy of youth work – and the fundamental significance of the spark of the divine that he believes is in everyone. 2002 18 pages A5 ISBN 1 870319 14 1 £1.50.

Born and Bred? Telling stories of leadership. A CD created by Peter Cutts that explores experience around leadership. Hear educators and young people talk about their work and efforts.
